COMPANIES

Ashok Leyland expands Karnataka footprint with new dealership in Raichur

This is the 12th Light Commercial Vehicle dealership in the state, enhancing its LCV distribution network to over 945 customer touchpoints nationwide

By PTI

Updated - September 11, 2026 at 03:32 PM. | New Delhi

Commercial vehicle manufacturer Ashok Leyland, the Indian flagship firm of Hinduja Group, on Friday inaugurated a dealership in Raichur, Karnataka.

This marks the 12th Light Commercial Vehicle dealership in the state, further strengthening its LCV distribution network, which now spans over 945 customer touchpoints across the country.

The new channel partner SB Motors LLP has a 3S (Sales, Service and Spares) facility strategically located at Mukram Gunj, Raichur.

Viplav Shah, Head - LCV Business, Ashok Leyland said, "Karnataka has always been an important market for us, and we are excited to further strengthen our presence in this region".  IHCL inks 125-key Gateway hotel in Sambalpur, Odisha * Indian Hotels Company Ltd

(IHCL) on Friday announced the signing of a 125-key greenfield Gateway hotel in Sambalpur, Odisha.

"Sambalpur has evolved as a key business and economic hub in Odisha, supported by a growing industrial ecosystem, increasing demand for business travel, conferences, weddings and social events. We are pleased to partner with Shamsher Singh Hura for this hotel project," IHCL Executive Vice President - Real Estate and Development, Suma Venkatesh said in a statement.

With the addition of this hotel, IHCL will have 8 hotels in Odisha, including three under development.